Korean Professional Football (Soccer) Team Incheon United to play exhibition matches against Guam National Team

Guam plays host to Korea's Incheon United Professional Soccer Team. The visiting team will play two exhibition matches against Guam's Men's National Team. The Korean team is on Guam for two weeks of spring training. There are over 50 players and staff that comprise the group.

The exhibition matches are scheduled for:

Friday February 2nd 7pm GFA Field
Tuesday February 6th 7pm GFA Field

According to GFA President Richard Lai, "One way to increase our international potential and development is to have quality clubs such as Incheon United who come to Guam to train, share their skills and knowledge with us. In the end, everyone benefits. These exhibition matches will prepare our National players for the upcoming East-Asian Football Federation competition in March."

In addition, Incheon United will be conducting a free Coaches Clinic on Saturday February 3 from 10am-11am at the GFA Field. The content of the session will be goal keeping and conditioning. To register call GFA at 637-GFA1 (4321).
